

Think About: What factors prompted the scramble for Asia?

Asian Imperialism

- MISSIONARIES
- SEPOY REBELLION
 - DIRECT RULE
- BAL GANGADHAR TILAK
 - CONFUCIUS
 - LIN ZEXU
 - OPIUM WAR
- BOXER REBELLION
 - SPHERES OF INFLUENCE

Map

Imperialism

- When a nation expands and controls more territory. In the 19th century, this meant European nations controlling other parts of the world to exploit these other parts and gain their resources.
- Imperialists justify their actions by claiming they are improving the lives of the subjugated.

India

Christian Missionaries

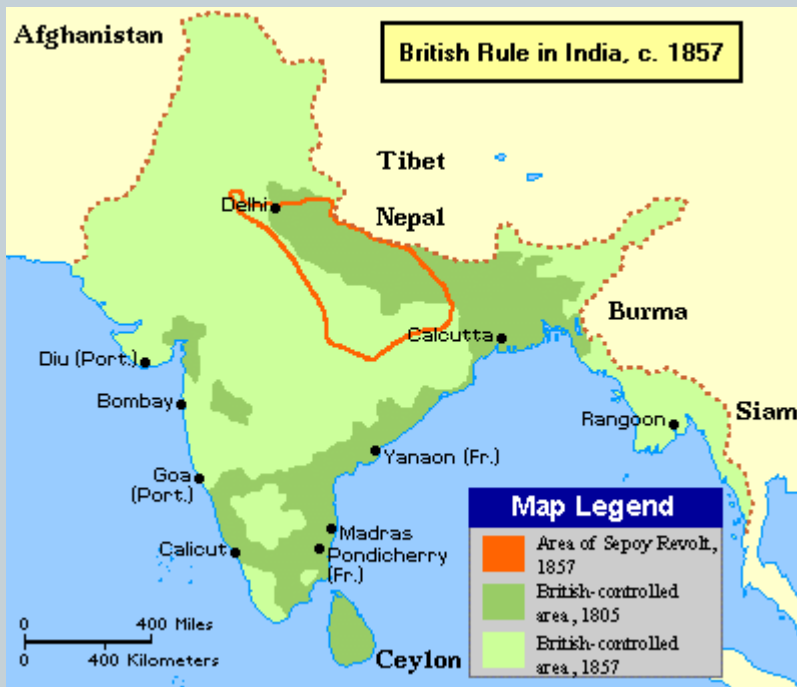

Sepoy Rebellion/ Sepoy Mutiny

Direct UK Control of India

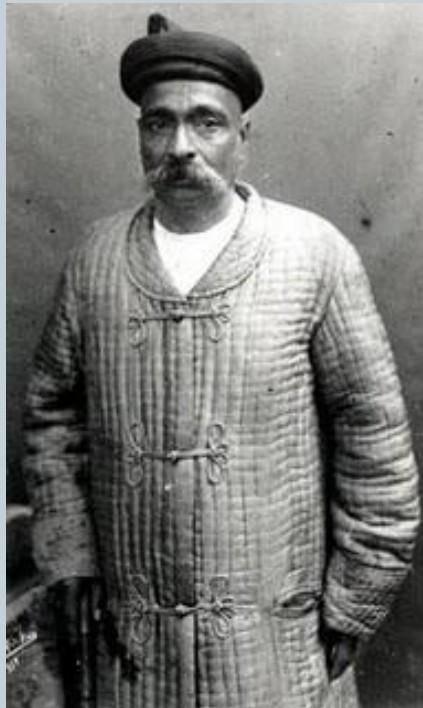

- British Reforms:
 - More government jobs
 - Education
 - Voting rights

All-Indian National Congress

Bal Gangadhar Tilak

China

Confucius Thinking

- Morality
- Deference toward elders
- Virtue and responsibility
- Order within society

Lin Zexu

First Opium War

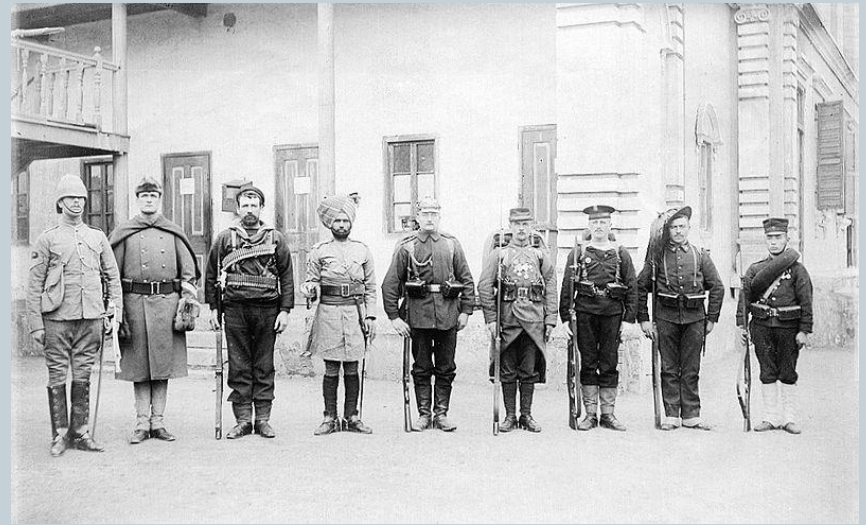

Results of First Opium War

- China gave UK $21million
- China agreed to open trade to UK
- China gave Hong Kong to UK for 175 years
- British citizens had a right to be tried in British court

Boxer Rebellion

Boxer Rebellion

China Sphere of Influence

